For the Conference on Supporting Transgender & Gender-expansive Youth

9 to 4:30 p.m., Saturday, May 6th, 2017

Edgewood College Campus, Madison

This is a conference geared towards youth and families, LGBTQ allies, school district staff ~ anyone wishing to learn about and support our kids

This day-long conference will provide attendees with an overview of what it means to be a youth who is transgender and/or gender-expansive. Sessions will focus on the personal experiences of families and students as well as information on how our communities and schools can create a safe, healthy and welcoming space.
